THE DAWN OF MARRIAGE

Bible Text: Genesis 2:10, 21-25

Teacher: Adewuyi S. Oluwatobi

Prayer

Our Lord and King Jesus Christ, we thank You for Your love and grace towards us, we pray that You'd enlighten us and teach us as we dig deeper and deeper into the ocean of Your word, in Jesus name. Amen

Study

You are all welcome to today's study in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Hope you're doing well and had a wonderful day. Today we would be treating one of the most important aspect of life, It would be expository by God's grace. It's a wide topic and we would treat it in different topics as each stage applies. Brethren, this study would address those willing to get married some day, those already in courtship and those already married. With this no one would be left out. Praise God! Some things would be said that might look funny, but at the same time take note, it's the truth. May God open our understanding. Amen

What does dawn mean?

It means to start something, it means the beginning of something. Amen!

Let me ask us, what is marriage? Please tell us what marriage means in your own understanding.

Views on marriage by members

1. Marriage biblically is the union of a male and female to be fruitful and multiply in God's love.
2. Marriage is the uniting of a man and woman with God's blessings and they become one flesh.
3. Marriage, it is a state of a lady and a man coming together under one house based on agreement/covenant which makes them to be one.
4. Marriage is the combination of a man and a woman to become husband and wife, after they have gone through all the process/ procedures recognize in a society for the purpose of procreation, mutual assistant and companionship

5. Marriage is a covenant between a male and a female under the law of creation.

I would like us to take note of these definitions, there is something common in them, which is male and female, man and a woman, which means joining of male and male, female and female, male and an animal, or female and an animal is not marriage. Laws has already been passed in the US that the same gender can get married. But according to how God sees marriage, these people are not married.

What are the purposes of marriage?

- for companionship

- for procreation

These are the main reasons why God instituted marriage, there are more such as to avoid sexual immorality.

The first thing God saw that brought about marriage was that ,it is not good that man should be alone Genesis 2:18 KJV And the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him. Then after that he gave the the command of Genesis 1:28 KJV And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth. With this we know that God's will is that without marriage there should not be procreation.

Our bible text is Genesis 2:10, 21-25

And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads. [21] And the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof; [22] And the rib, which the Lord God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man. [23] And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man. [24] Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh. [25] And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

The Lord caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam and he slept and He took one of his ribs and closed up the flesh instead thereof; Genesis 2:21 And the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof; By the verse above we know that God is the first surgeon, what God did during the surgical operation to Adam is what has given men the insight of doing operation to correct some damages in men. That is why, when they start operation, the first thing they do is to cause their patients to sleep(a death like sleep). not until now that they can just paralyze the aspect they want to operate on.

Sometimes God causes men to sleep a deep sleep to achieve something, for instance, 1 Samuel 26:12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster; and they gat them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked: for they were all asleep; BECAUSE A DEEP SLEEP FROM THE LORD WAS FALLEN UPON THEM. God caused Saul and his servants to sleep so that He could see the kind of person David truly was, assuming David was not upright with God he would have killed Saul instead of just taking his spear and the cruse of water from his bolster, God also wanted Saul to see that he does not possess an upright heart like David, so God does not just cause men to sleep such sleep without a purpose. The other thing I would like us to know is that man has the power of choice even right from the garden of Eden Genesis 2:19 And out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof. God brought all the animals He had created to Adam to see what he would call them and whatever Adam named them was their name, God gave him a free hand, even He (God) wanted to see what he would call them, He did not say why would you name that one a lion? come on name it a lizard.

The ability to give name is one of the application of Dominion God give to man.

So man can choose what he wants and what he does not want because he has the power. As Adam was naming all the beast, male and female, he knew that none was comparable to him, because he was different even to the point of reasoning, he saw a monkey and named it, he saw a gorilla and named it, he saw a chimpanzee and named it yet none was comparable to him, though chimpanzees are intelligent animals that are a type of ape, but it is still a lower animal. Biologists would say that we are higher animals, God has placed us higher than all of His creation. That is why we are created to dominate. Therefore, because there was no one comparable to him God then caused him to sleep and removed a rib and he built it into a woman. Genesis 2:22 And the rib, which the Lord God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man. The makeup of a woman is as a result of the product gotten from a man. God just brought her to the man, you see men were created with raw materials but women are finished products, that's why they are beautiful and always love beautiful things.

Since man was created and he has been fellowshiping with God and naming the animals, the Bible did not quote one single word he said all were given as reported speech, but at the sight of the woman he spoke words that needed to be quoted because the words are so true to the makeup of man and woman. He said this is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh. beauty must have astounded him.

Genesis 2:23 KJV And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man. That word now has deeper meaning, it means that he has searched among all the living things present in the garden of Eden and could not see any to give that kind of attributes to and as some historical books would have it , Adam had been in the garden of Eden for 120 years before woman was created which means that he had really done a good search for one comparable to him and could not find any. Not until God brought her to him, From the statements he made, he was saying NOW I have found one I can relate with it in the same level of intelligence, one whom I can share burdens with, whom I can connect with emotionally, whom I can share happy moments with, no other living thing can fulfill this but NOW I have these qualities in her. Then instantly said "she would be called a woman". Nobody asked him why, but he went further to say because she was taken out of man. Who told him that she was taken out of Man? God has not even told him but he did so because he was so much carried away by the sight of her.

He saw a corresponding likeness in her, the reflection of himself.

The woman must have been very beautiful because she has not even said a single word that Adam had started confessing things that came to his mind, that is how it is till now, the moment a man meets the right woman for him, he tends to lose control of his behaviour and even actions. You see, women are very beautiful creatures of God who has special qualities in them that can make a man confess the things that is in his heart, even without asking him. If you see a man in love, that is a man who does not have secret because the lady he loves would basically know all what she wants to know, a man can hide something from his friends, family and even his mother but not from the woman he is deeply in love with, use Samson as a case study. Men are usually moved by sight, they love beautiful things and because women knows this too, that is why you will see an average woman so much concerned about how she looks. God just brought her to Adam, and he has not even tested the level of her intelligence when he began to confess.

A girl of 13 to 14 is now very conscious of her looks, if you have girls from that age range, watch them closely and you'd discover that they are always looking at themselves in the mirror whenever they have the opportunity to, it is because they want to look pleasant. As a young lady you have to learn how to dress well, being a Christian does not mean you should wear colour riot, being a Christian does not mean that you should tie your scarf like an Imam, or always covering your hair when walking in the street when you are not praying except you are the type that always pray while walking, let fresh air blow on that head. Being saved doesn't mean that you should park your hair roughly, because God says you should not plait your hair at all or use wig does not give you the licence to look unkempt. For the fact that God says you should not use jewelries and make-up does not mean you should look dry.

Oil your body properly with creams that does not change your skin tone, pack your hair neatly and if it is a low cut, don't let it get low to the point that your scalp would be showing, leave the hairs at a level that can be combed and always make it neatly trimmed without styles, put on clothes that are not oversized and are not tight revealing your shape, look presentable, clean yourself regularly and smell nice, it's not a must you use perfume, if you are neat you will not have a bad odour even without the use of perfume. Let your Adam see you and confess to God the moment he sets his eyes on you. Don't forget that most times the way you appear will attract the kind of man like you to you, If you dress like a prostitute, you'd get a fraudster as a suitor. Adam had been in the garden yet the appearance of none of the animals was attractive to him.

That is why if you see a man mating with an animal or getting attracted to an animal you should know that he is possessed, all those who have sex with animals are controlled by the devil and most of them are not humans but demons in human form. God brought the woman to Adam and that constituted the first marriage. Adam had the will power to reject the woman because God had given him the power of choice, so what finally consummated their marriage was the fact that he accepted her immediately he saw her, assuming Adam had said "who is this I don't want her, she's not even beautiful, take her away from me" God wouldn't have forced her on him because God does not force things on people not even himself. He did not even make two women for Adam, he made only one. Therefore, marriage is to be between a man and a woman, not women. But the fact that he was pleased to see the woman and loved her and accepted her, that was why God joined them together. God Himself conducted the first marriage physically, therefore, Adam and Eve were the first to get married, Adam did not pay bride price he married for free, all of what he got in the garden of Eden were given to him for free. God was the Father of Eve who willingly gave her to him to marry, by this God instituted marriage that is why Hebrews 13:4 says Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. "Marriage is honorable in all". God does not do horrible things, He always does beautiful things, therefore He went further to say "and the bed undefiled."

When God brought Eve to Adam he did not say God wait let me test her I want to know if she can cook, i want to know if she can do house chores, I want to see if she'd be good in bed, he accepted her the way God brought her to him. Sisters don't bother yourself to change to whom God has not created you to be just because of men, your Adam will accept you the way you are, that is, the way God created you, a part of your body is not looking pleasant to you, leave that alone if it's what cannot be treated or adjusted on a normal ground, your Adam would love it. Some time ago my mum told us about a man who said that it is the pimples on her face then that he loves so don't transform into something else because you want to please a man, all men do not have the same taste, if you complain that you are slender, there are men looking for slender ladies, if say that you are too short, there are men looking for short ladies. Some ladies bleach, while others go as far as doing plastic surgery just to transform themselves into something else, learn to appreciate whom God has created you to be, the man He has created you for would love you even with that thing that you think disfigures you.

Besides, there is nobody who does not have one thing or the other that he does not like about himself or herself, So the ability to appreciate your body the way God has given it to you with coveting another shows the level of your maturity even in Christ. Many people use to say that they would test who they want to marry before marriage, both male and female alike. They have turned whom God created to mere appliances that needs to be tested or food that should be tasted and it's the sisters that fall victims of this the most. Because you have been waiting for a man for years and this one finally shows up and says that he must know you first before he can go ahead with the marriage plans, so because you don't want to lose him you allowed him to test you. Please stop things like this sisters you are far more than a mere material to be tested, you are not an object, don't allow any man to know you without first paying for it.

If he insists on it, then let him go, he does not appreciate you and since he does not appreciate you now, he will not appreciate you in marriage, that is if he marries you after testing you. Most men will not marry you after they have passed through your promised Land, so be wise. The word of God says marriage bed should be undefiled, no sex before marriage no matter what our society has turned into even if his parents tells you to get pregnant for him before marriage reject it sister, your father must hand you over to him first just the way God handed the woman over to Adam, God will judge all fornicators and adulterers. Some churches join couples who are already pregnant together and they call it holy wedlock. This kind of marriages are not two shall become one but three are getting to be one and at times four or more if the babies are more than two, that is why this kind of marriages do have tough challenges most times that finally scatters them while God sits to watch the movie.

God did not tell Adam to give Eve a wedding ring all He did was to pronounce them as husband and wife. Genesis 2:24 Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh. Wedding rings emanates from the world into the church and many unsuspecting Christians has been trapped, which has given the devil a legal ground to trouble their marriages. The word of God joined them, in the same way, what is needed to institute a godly marriage is the consent of both parties and their families by fulfilling all necessary requirements and the word of God. There are times when issues such as family conflicts, tribe, nation and language barriers would want to stand against a couple coming together, it is advisable that matters such as this are settled amicably before going on with the marriage plans. When the father is not in support or the mother of any of the two parties, intense prayers are to be made if it's God that wants to institute the marriage He would remove all obstacles.

No marriage should be made amidst disagreements from both families, the question to marry from another religion should not come out of the mouth of a serious child of God, because we can see that there is no relationship between light and darkness. God was the Father of Adam, God was still the Father of Eve, they were both from the same source. Assuming Eve was created by the devil they would have mismatched therefore don't for any reason marry a man or a woman who is not genuinely saved not even a Christian by mouth, be wise. Adam fell in love with Eve the moment he saw her, he did not even "ask her out" before he married her. Smiles, I'm not saying it's wrong to ask a lady out if the Lord is leading you to her. A fellow who want to get married must be bold to walk up to whomever he wants to marry, such person must be able to exercise leadership even in this aspect by making his intentions known to the lady. As a lady be cautioned not to ask a fellow out, even if God says he is the right man for you, be patient and continue to pray that the Lord directs him to you, as a brother you must know that making your intentions known to a woman whom God has shown you is not something you must be spiritual about, although you must constantly walk in the Spirit, please beware that it is not bad to give short and sincere compliment on how she looks or anything that excites you about her in a godly manner, Yes, God brought her to you in prayers because she's His daughter, that does not change the fact that she's human and has blood flowing through her veins, you must understand the make up of a woman.

If you are yet to read our teaching titled "The Fall of Man" please do so, it will give you deeper insights about men and women. Adam opened his mouth and said nice things about what his eyes saw. Eve could not have gotten annoyed because of what Adam said, "This is now the bone of my bones, and the flesh of my flesh" Eve would probably have been smiling or blushing. You see, ladies love it when you make nice compliments about the way they look, listen to what brother Adam said that won sister Eve's heart, what he used to describe her was beyond beautiful, he meant this is part of me, in short she's me and cannot be separated from me because she's my flesh, I cherish her the way I cherish myself and Eve was like what an interesting line, I love it, it's sweet to the ears. Smiles! Ladies are moved by what they hear, so the fastest way into a lady's heart is her ears, that is why most people of the world who wants to find a way into the heart of any lady they want always try to make friends with their siblings by giving them gifts, so these ones would continually sing their names into their ears and with that she'd begin to consider such a person for a relationship.

I know some of you would say money is the best way to get a lady. Smiles, yes money is essential to everyone including male and female but a godly lady do not place priority on money, most times, you will see a very beautiful lady going with a fellow who is not even handsome to you, and does not even dress well like you, at times this lady would be maltreated by this fellow, yet, she would stick to him and you'd be wondering what is happening, saying she's insane to still be with him, some would even say love is blind, she's not insane it is just that the fellow already knows the key to her heart which is not known by you, so even if she says that she does not want to have anything to do with him again she won't be able to, It's not like she was charmed but she has loved him with all her heart.

And one beautiful thing about women is that whenever they love they love with all their hearts, that is why even when the fellow breaks their hearts they still love him with the broken pieces of their hearts. A lady that loves you would go any length because of you in as much as it is within the jurisdiction God has laid down, if she is godly. Therefore as a brother because you are fireful and your suit is removing flame and you think that she's spiritual too, now make you think it is a sin to compliment her so you walk up to her and go straight to the point because you're always a serious Man. "God said you are my wife, will you marry me?" "I laugh" at that point even if she has seen it before that you are the man for her, she might tell you a "no" not even knowing when it would come out of her mouth, because she'd feel like you'd not be able to care for her.

A short and sincere compliment will do.

You don't have to flatter her, and when you speak say your mind like Adam and go straight to the point, don't start talking about how Elijah ran away from Jezebel and how he was fed by ravens at Brook cherith, or going to upload all the love verses in songs of Solomon into your head to prove that you are spiritually emotional, just be whom you are, be simple as possible. Some churches has procedures laid down, you should follow them if they are godly and helpful, but it's mostly advisable to seek directions from the Holy Spirit. Brothers please learn how to dress don't knot a tie on a shirt placed on short knicker with long socks and palm sandal like a village teacher. Stop wearing vertical line shirts on horizontally lined trousers, because I said ladies are moved by what they hear does not mean you should look like a bicycle man selling palm wine and you'd expect the sister to give you listening ear.

Mind you, I did not say you should dress to impress anyone just look simple and neat, don't go and borrow shoes and shirts because you want to impress a sister, be whom you are in a presentable way. Eve met Adam the way he was, he did not try to impress her, he was simple down-to-earth. Cut your hair and shave your beards neatly, it is not a must you barb styles or shape the hair and beards to look nice and responsible, no godly lady would love to marry an irresponsible brother. As they say cleanliness is next to godliness, take your bath regularly to avoid body odor, don't smell like someone drinking beer, it's not a must you use perfume, iron your clothes. The prophet who told you that ironing your clothes is a sin is a false prophet, you don't need to wear clothes that looks like a squeezed paper because you are spiritual, wear good shoes too. Ladies are not blind, they have eyes too to know what is beautiful and ugly. Genesis 3:6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat. The woman saw that it was good and pleasant to the eyes, you see that? both men and women need to learn to be polite at all times.

As a fellow it is wrong to expect your fiancée to come to your house to cook and do your laundry, learn to do your chores yourself. In verse 23, Adam said, "she shall be called a woman" - not a specific name for Eve, but a general name for her specie "Isha" that is, a She-Man. One who is at the same level of reasoning with him, one who can love and be loved, one whom he can relate with sexually. When God made the woman out of his rib, automatically he knew she was part of him, therefore, for God to have removed her from his side and not his head shows that God did not create her to rule over the man. For Him not to have removed her from his feet shows that God did not create her to be trampled upon by him the way many men do these days, but He fashioned her from his side, under his arms, this shows that he is meant to be a covering to her, protecting her. That is why whenever a man is with a woman even if they are not married he has this consciousness in him that he is to protect her that moment, it shows that she's meant to be covered with love and bestowed with care. She's someone that must be related with on equal terms and not as a slave. She must be respected and treated like yourself. For the rib to have come from the man shows that she's part of him, one with him, and because of this, anyway the man treats himself should be how he would treat her. Whenever she is maltreated by him he has just maltreated himself.

Some things happens most times especially when couples just get married, the man who has been living as a bachelor for years and suddenly gets married without experience tends to still live like a bachelor even after the wedding, he may not be doing it intentionally but because he is not used to a family kind way of life, therefore might be unconsciously neglecting some certain responsibilities, such as care and attention, in such cases sincere conversations should be made by them concerning the matter, that is why even as a young man you must learn from the dawn of marriage in the garden of Eden and always put it at the back of your mind that anyhow you treat your own self is how you should treat your wife. If you are thinking of what to eat, at the same time think of what your other body (she) would eat, by this, you would not be selfish. You have to prefer her well-being than yours because whenever she's happy with you your prayers will not be hindered. 1 Peter 3:7 Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

We are done with The Dawn of Marriage. The next topic before us on marriage, is Leaving & Cleaving in Marriage. I will attend to questions that were asked at our previous study and new ones if there are any.

Question

So if God gave Eve to Adam without paying anything, does that mean when a man marries a woman without anything being paid to the family of the woman, in which the family agrees, is it bad?

Answer

Because God gave Eve to Adam without requesting for a bride price (dowry) does not mean that men should not pay it. He approved it in Exodus 22:17 KJV If her father utterly refuse to give her unto him, he shall pay money according to the dowry of virgins. From this statement we know that it's God's will that we pay it, dowry must be paid since we are no longer dealing directly with God but with our fellow humans. God does not physically hand over any woman to any man again, majority of women today has parents, but if the father of the lady gives another option apart from the payment of dowry to marry his daughter, then it's fine, just like what Saul did. 1 Samuel 18:25 And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, The king desireth not any dowry, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies, but Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines. Therefore, anybody that cohabits with another person whose bride price is not paid, is committing fornication, in fact God sees the man as a thief who stole somebody's daughter.

Question

So what you trying to say is that it's perfect for a man not to pay a woman's dowry since the father of the supposed bride agrees with the man not to pay a dime on the lady's head?

Answer

There is no how a father will not collect anything on his daughter. Everything that constitutes a dowry is beyond the money paid as bride price, the items to be brought among others, the man might be required to work for the lady's parent the way Jacob worked for Laban as a form of dowry. But "if" a situation arises where the father says that the man should marry his daughter for free, which I believe is impossible, then as a Christian who is following Bible standard you have to insist on paying something at least even if it's little. Is this helpful sister?
