WHAT IS A SOUL TIE?

A soul tie spiritually speaking is:

- A spiritual connection between two people's, souls or spirits who have been physically intimate with each other or who have had an intense emotional or spiritual association or relationship.
- A deep emotional connection between two peoples, or entities. Entities can be organizations, societies (New age movements), cults, pets, places, objects.
- Soul ties are more than just sexual connections but can be formed in many other areas such as;
- FAMILY MEMBERS: Sometimes the closeness of family members can create very strong soul- ties. By being a family member with another means, you share the same blood. This blood connection is a tie on its own and God created it that way. That is why we care and love our family members and we will sometimes do anything for them. However, there is a challenge when the blood tie becomes a soul tie that is ungodly. Now a family member is struggling to move on especially when they are about to get married or be independent. I know of married couples that refuse to let go of their siblings or parents. God created marriage to be between two people, but with soul ties, family member become a huge problem in marriage. I know of twins that are married, but are struggling to let go of each other due to soul ties. Every person that you share a womb or blood with will forever be part of your life, but you need to allow God to unite you with those that He brings in your life- in this case a life partner.

SECRET SOCIETIES: Any involvement with a cult or a New age doctrine or belief will create soul ties. There are societies or New age believes that are designed to bind the individual. These are practices that will demand your soul for an exchange of a false hope or reward.

CULTS: Every time the devil wants to bind people, he will subject them to confessions and believes that ultimately bind the soul of a person. Cults like Christianity offer hope and spiritual enlightenment. In Christianity we give our lives, souls and all to the Lord, in Cults you give your soul to this demonic spirits and that is why a person can be a believer but if they were deeply involved in Cults they need to renounce and break the soul ties with this altars of darkness.

SEXUAL SIN: Any sexual relations outside of marriage must be prayed over to break any soul ties formed. Every partner that you have had in the past and have sexually been intimate with them, you have a part of them in you. For example, if they were prideful, you will struggle with pride. In fact, any of the areas that they struggled with can be transferred into your life. This is one of the ways lasting soul ties are formed. There is so many people struggling in their sex life because of the past sexual relations. They can be intimate with their married partner but in their mind or emotions they are thinking or have feelings of a former lover. Sex is one area we need to be very prayerful of. God is serious about holiness and there is a need for deliverance in this area for many couples.

Look at this illustration below:

Unless a soul tie is broken, this is what you can expect; All the sexual relations that are connected to you through your partner you inherit them and their individual spirits. Remember sexual intercourse binds you and makes the two one. There is grace and deliverance for you, keep reading and believe the power of God to deliver you.

CLOSE FRIENDS: I have seen friends ruin and destroy each other due to soul ties. Friendship in itself is good, but any time your friendship becomes too emotional and close you need to watch out for soul ties. If you are a married person you need to guard against soul ties formed by friendship. That is why we encourage in our churches that rather have brothers and sisters in the Lord, do not form clicks or groups in the house of God. This is not Biblical and we need to watch who is coming too close to us.

ORGANIZATIONS: Some people who have worked or stayed in a company or organization will tell you how difficult it is to move on. Every time you feel the bound with a place or anyone other than with God-, this is a form of a soul tie and needs you to pray and break it so that you can move on.

EX-HUSBANDS/ WIVES: Everyone that has been married will tell you this; it's not easy to let go of their ex. There seem to be a bound that is hard to break. Remember marriage is a godly institution and according to God, the two shall become one. There are times that people go through difficult relationships and even end up divorcing each other. God is faithful and can restore you, but you need to break the ties with the old. These past relations can surface sometimes in dreams and in the emotions or thoughts. If left unchecked they can open a door to spirit spouses and hence we need to pray and break them.

RELIGIOUS LEADERS: Sometimes a soul tie can happen between a member of a church and their leader. God wants and desires the leader to be connected to the flock- but the connection must be pure and within God's principles. But sometimes we have members or leaders that become too close to each other that makes them tied in their soul. This leads to a lot of unnecessary issues that makes ministry difficult. These are people that end up worshiping their leaders or no matter how much God speaks to them, they are so into the leader that nothing matters except what the leader wants. This opens a door to manipulation and domestic witchcraft within the Church.

PETS: Sometimes a human soul can be bound to an animal soul. Pets are created to have emotions, will and minds. They possess a soul that longs to be attached. If you are not careful, you can create a soul tie with an animal. The love and care we give to pets should not be too much as God never created human being to have ties with animals. You will be shocked how many people will prefer to live and be with an animal rather than to be with human beings. Its not godly and can be a problem to your spiritual life.

CHEMICAL REACTIONS IN THE BRAIN THAT GLUE US

I was amazed by this discovery of how our brains work and I hope it will enlighten you and help you see how to guard your mind especially from ungodliness, evil and the lust of this world. Your mind has chemicals and a whole lot of things that are interconnected or wired to such an extent that you have chemicals and systems in place in your brain or mind and if you are not using them accordingly they can work against you.

For example; When you have a sexual experience, your brains produce dopamine, the same chemical that feeds addictions such as, food cravings, shopping, smoking, drinking, drug abuse, gambling etc. Dopamine is often described as the “feel good” chemical of the brain and it plays a major role in our lives weather for good or bad. The more we release this chemical through the actions we do, the more the brain and our bodies wants it. It cannot distinguish weather this is a good action or bad, all that it wants is the feel good high. You see, our bodies do not care if it's shopping, food cravings, a cupcake or a sexual experience – dopamine will be produced and it will bind us to the addiction, practice or an experience. This is how the glue between these addictions and your emotions is formed. This glue is a type of a soul tie or bondage to whatever makes you feel good. The glue is what you don't need as that bound can affect your spiritual life, especially if it is not godly. Soul ties are like super glue. If you have had sexual encounters outside of marriage, weather consensual or forced, there is most likely a lingering glue or soul tie that needs to be dealt with otherwise you'll forever be plagued with thoughts, feelings and even actions that are unwanted. This lingering glue can apply to a pet, family member, place, persons(s), addictions etc.

SOME SYMPTOMS OF LINGERING SOUL TIES INCLUDE:

Hearing someone's voice in your head: Have you felt a presence or literally heard a voice of someone not physically present with you. Sometimes it is your ex or family member that is no longer with you. These voices are so real and it's like a person is there.

Imagine or think of someone while intimate with your partner: Your mind is all over, you have this image of this person even though you are being intimate with your partner. You struggle to orgasm unless you put all your mind and thoughts on this imagined person. This is a sign of a soul tie. Your mind has created an image of sexual gratification. Sometimes these images are not people you know but personalities you see on your TV, phone, internet. A man once confessed how he would never enjoy sex until he put a pornographic picture of someone in his mind while being intimate with their partner. This is a soul tie with a lust spirit and you cannot afford to let the devil destroy your marriage. Left unchecked the devil will send you a person of your sexual fantasy; they have the shape, look and beauty you have been picturing all along. When a person imagined shows up in your real life an affair will be hard to resist because of the brain chemicals and soul ties you will not be able to resist what you have created in your mind.

This explains why a godly happily married man can leave a beautiful wife and sleep with a prostitute. The feel good chemical is glued to a pornographic image and a particular image of a woman and until it finds that image it will not be satisfied.

Obsessively thinking about someone: Do find yourself thinking about that person almost all the time. You wonder what they are doing and it's almost like you will love to see them or hear from them. Sometimes you are married but you have a person who occupies your mind more than your spouse. This is a glue/soul tie that needs to be dealt with.

Dreaming about someone on a regular basis: That face that keeps occurring in your dreams. It's a deep rooted memory and bond you once had and you are struggling to let go. Sometimes a person can dream of a dead late family relative. If this becomes regular it must be broken it's a soul tie. When a late spouse is not released prayerfully this is what brings this longing and dreams.

You need to let go and pray a prayer to release your spouse or close family member or friend if you having constant dreams of the dead. Listen to this true story;

A husband who was married for 60 years tragically lost their partner in a motor vehicle accident. The wife died on the scene and the husband survived. The family came together and comforted the old man and he had all the support he needed. However, he could not release his wife in his heart. He was forever sad, grieved and could not imagine life without her. As much as he was healthy and could continue to live, he opted to take his life. The family could not understand, but this man-committed suicide. This is a sad story, but it shows you how powerful a soul tie is.

BROKEN VOWS ENGAGEMENTS OR PROMISES

Sometimes broken marriage promises can haunt you for the rest of your life, until you deal with them. We counsel many of young couples that will have a soul tie issue because of a former broken promise they made with someone. A man sometimes can make a promise of marriage to a woman and as we all know, not all engagements make it to the marriage ceremony. A situation where a man breaks the engagement due to various reasons can create problems if the other person is not matured about it. A promise works like a vow and when you promise or vow to anyone spiritually you are speaking a word that carries a spiritual responsibility. That means for that person spiritually the promise is a tie or contract that you make to them. If this tie does not come to its fulfilment, the other person will have a sort of a spiritual hold over you. You need to deal seriously with broken engagements if you have had them. We always advice prayers and verbal confessions that needs to be made.

HOW TO BREAK THE SOUL TIES

Now that we have identified what are soul ties and how they bind us and limit us, we are going to deal with them and there are few things here that I need to mention before we start praying. How then do we deal with soul ties, how do we break them for good in our lives.

ACKNOWLEDGE

First step to any deliverance is to Acknowledge that there is a problem: acknowledging that there is a problem does not mean you are speaking defeat, but rather you are creating an atmosphere where the Spirit of God can begin to heal you.

This is a good place to do a list with names if you have- of any soul ties that you feel you have, weather sexual or otherwise as mentioned at the beginning of this book.

CONFESSION & REPENTANCE

Secondly you have this issues and ties that you have identified- prayerfully you are ready now to Confess and Repent. Confession is very powerful at this stage and we advise that you find a godly accountability prayer partner that you can confess to or who can help you pray through the process. It maybe be a church counselor, pastor or elder or a family member.

FORGIVE

Forgiveness is the third step: As hard as it may seem, you need to verbally release this people or ties that have bound you all this time. You cannot afford not to forgive. Forgiveness is by the grace of God and you need Him to help you to let go and release those the enemy has used to hurt you. Forgiveness will apply only if the ties was as a result of a person hurting you or offending you in some way.

BREAK & RENOUNCE

Last step is to Break and Renounce the soul tie: You are now ready to break and release yourself completely from the tie. You need to speak it out loud! Life and death are in the power of the tongue so when you speak out you are declaring with your mouth the power of Christ to break the soul ties. Ties are spiritual and deep; don't stop praying until they are completely broken. The devil will try to come back and bind you, but you need to resist him. You must also do a spiritual house cleaning and remove gifts or souvenirs from those past relationships that bring up the memories from the past ties.
